PUM PUM “GALAXIA”

“Galaxia”, the new exhibit by Pum Pum in UNION Gallery celebrates the forms and ordered chaos that are naturally occuring in the creative Universe of the artist. The show includes artworks in a variety of formats including a limited edition of silkscreen prints, collage in wood and a mural.

While drawing is her natural habitat, Pum Pum explores illustration, graphic design, muralism and her other recent installations with the same ease and fluidity, creating a cast of characters known for their unique combination of sweetness and mischieviousness. Pum Pum appeared in the streets of Buenos Aires in 2004, covering walls with stickers and murals filled with cats and birds, axes, and a cute girls with bangs sporting a Black Flag t-shirt and a cat on her head. Her artworks have been exhibited in national galleries and across the world including in Berlin, Londn and Washington DC; and her contributions to regenerative urban projects have taken her to Bariloche, Rosario and recently to Tunis.
